DOL Update (Employer Sponsored Plans)

Which Way Are the Regulatory Winds Blowing?

Additional Regulatory scrutiny has returned to the retirement plan market recently. Whether you've sailed through the regulatory environment or remained ashore, there are actions you can take now to help better position you and your company to compete for and retain highly talented employees. Refreshments and light snacks will be served.

Join us for our DOL Update (Employer Sponsored Plans) presentation, Finding the Prevailing Winds.

We Will Be Discussing:

- Liabilities and Responsibilities in a Retirement Plan
- Protecting you and your company
- How quality service can impact your overall experience
- Investing in your employees

We hope you will join us! Please RSVP by calling Alida at 406-755-0793 by March 15th.
