

Million Hearts Worksite Wellness

November 5, 2014 10AM - 2PM (registration 9:30 - 10AM) Homewood Suites, Kalispell, Montana
November 12, 2014 10AM-2PM (registration 9:30 - 10AM) Bozeman Public Library

For questions call Kirk @406-451-3017
Email your registration form to: kkeller@montana.edu

A joint project between the Montana Department of Public Health and Human Services & Montana State University Department of Health and Human Development

Million Hearts Worksite Wellness Workshop

Registration is now open:

Register by completing the attached registration form and email to:
kkeller@montana.edu

Cost is $20 (lunch will be provided) Please pay at registration on the day of the workshop

Discover how to:

- ☐ Create an employee health management program for your business
- ☐ Design strategies for long term sustainability
- ☐ Increase employee productivity
- ☐ Reduce absenteeism
- ☐ Manage medical and worker compensation claims costs
- ☐ Identify evaluation techniques
- ☐ Determine what your peers are doing successfully
- ☐ Merge your program with the ACA

Attend and qualify for 1:1
consultation at no cost!

Who should attend:

- ☐ Business owners
- ☐ Human resource staff
- ☐ Benefit managers
- ☐ Health professionals
- ☐ Wellness advocates

Workshop presented by:

Kirk D. Keller, MS, CWPM

Kirk has 30 years' experience in human resources, employee benefits and worksite health promotion. His health strategist services include consultation and support to employers engaging in worksite health promotion. Kirk has directed numerous clients and their programs to levels of positive returns and award recognition. His experience includes service in finance, health care, mining, and higher education. He also teaches at MSU-Bozeman as an adjunct instructor in the Health and Human Development Department.

Consultation experience:

Training, evaluation, data analysis, risk identification, consumer engagement, communications and reporting.